CORRESPONDENCE

19-20/0338

DRAGON'S TEETH

A quotation in the sum of £767.12 plus VAT had been received for the installation of dragon's teeth around two sides of the car park including the removal and disposal of the remaining fencing. The Clerk to obtain 2 further quotations.

RESOLVED: that the Clerk would obtain two further quotations.

19-20/0339

LIGHTING ON DRAGON'S TEETH

The church had supplied the contact details of a Salisbury-based electrician for the installation of solar powered lights onto the dragon's teeth. It was agreed that the lights only needed to be purchased, not installed, as this could easily be done by the groundsman. Cllr Middlewick undertook to find out the manufacturers' name.

RESOLVED: that Cllr Middlewick would find out manufacturers' name.

19-20/0340

PICNIC EQUIPMENT

Members of the Parish Council and the Clerk had met at the Recreation Ground on the previous Sunday to decide the locations for the picnic tables, benches and litter bins. Areas were marked out ready for the groundsman.

19-20/0341

TREE PLANTING

Photos were taken of the newly planted trees for the Clerk to upload onto the website, alongside other photos of the Parish Council's achievements during recent years.

RESOLVED: that the Clerk would update the website.

19-20/0342

TREES BETWEEN DRAPERS AND BADDESLEY CLOSE

A resident had drawn attention to issues with trees along the path between Drapers and the new housing development close to Baddesley Common. Cllr Knight confirmed that the trees were the responsibility of TVBC. The Clerk to forward the resident's concerns to TVBC and inform the resident.

RESOLVED: that the Clerk would liaise with TVBC and the resident.

19-20/0343

RIGHTS OF WAY VEGETATION PRIORITY CUTTING LIST

Rights of Way had requested details of 5 paths which would require priority cutting next year. The deadline for response was 15th January 2020. The Clerk to consult with the Footpath Warden. RESOLVED: that the Clerk would liaise with the Footpath Warden.

19-20/0344 UNAUTHORISED ENCAMPMENTS

NALC had issued a summary of the Home Office's new consultation on strengthening police powers to tackle unauthorised encampments. The Parish Council considered the questions in the consultation and agreed that the Clerk should email NALC with its response. RESOLVED: that the Clerk would email NALC with the Parish Council's response.
